The Puerto Rican Cultural Center is inaugurating a one-of-a-kind holiday experience on Paseo Boricua, which will feature free activities every weekend until January 6, 2023. The Puerto Rican Christmas Market will offer free activities such as a Parranda, Three Kings family photo ops, a Christmas tree lighting, ornament making in the style of Puerto Rican Vejigante masks, and so much more in an effort to attract more foot traffic to Paseo Boricua! We want to invite everyone to join us every weekend in our holiday festivities and get a taste of the island by supporting the many incredible Puerto Rican-owned small businesses on Paseo Boricua. Join us on December 17th, at 3pm at Chuchería's Tropical Creations for a special free event featuring the annual Paseo Boricua Parranda and the Paseo Boricua Christmas tree lighting/ornament decorating. The Puerto Rican Christmas market will be based in ¡WEPE! Mercado del Pueblo at 2559 W. Division Street where you can find hundreds of handmade goods, artisanal products, and specialty products directly from Puerto Rico to satisfy anyone's gifting needs. Every weekend start off at our local vendor's market at 2559 W. Division Street to get all your Christmas presents and make your way down Division Street to take pictures with the Three Kings and eat your favorite Puerto Rican holiday foods at one of our Puerto Rican restaurants. There is so much to enjoy during the holidays on Paseo Boricua like pasteles and lechón at La Bruquena, Hot Chocolate from Chuchería's Tropical Creations, everything you need to make Coquito from Municipal Market, arroz con gandules from Janellie's Kitchen, and so much more! The Puerto Rican Christmas Market and activities will be open every weekend from 11:00 A.M.-6:30 P.M., and the market will end on Three King's Day (January 6, 2023) with The Puerto Rican Cultural Center's annual children's gift giveaway event.
